The 1952 Milestones

Foreword . . .

“An aspiration is a joy forever”

IN YEARS TO COME AS YOU TURN THESE PAGES, WE HOPE
THAT YOU WILL PAUSE AT THE MILESTONES ALONG
THE WAY TO RELIVE EACH MOMENT OF THIS IMPORTANT
YEAR WHICH HAS SEEN THE METAMORPHOSIS OF A DREAM INTO REALITY. AS HARPETH HALL REACHES
ITS FIRST MILESTONE, IT IS WITH DEEP HUMILITY YET
WITH GREAT PRIDE THAT WE PRESENT TO YOU THIS ANNUAL. TO EACH STUDENT AND TO EACH ANNUAL STAFF THAT FOLLOWS, WE TRANSMIT OUR HOPES FOR THE FUTURE — ASPIRATIONS WHICH CAN NEVER BE EXHAUSTED AND WHICH GIVE “YEAR BY YEAR A REVENUE OF PLEASURABLE ACTIVITY,” AND COURAGE
WHICH TRANSMUTES ASPIRATIONS INTO ACHIEVEMENTS.

Dedication

To the Founders of this school, to the Board of Trustees, to the devoted principal, to the capable faculty, and to the many friends—to all who have made it possible for Harpeth Hall to have existence and growth, we express our sincere gratitude by dedicating to them this 1952 MILESTONES.

DIRECTOR

Mrs. Susan Souby

Not only an administrator whose judgment touches us all; not only a teacher who guides youthful students to an appreciation of honest work; but also the friend who takes our burdens as her own and never fails to help and to encourage us in even the humblest of our tasks—this is Mrs. Souby, our loved and respected director.

For her unselfish and unlimited devotion toward the successful completion of this school year, we give to her our sincerest thanks.

Angkor, Ariston, Eccowasin, Triad — these four clubs epitomize the spirit of Harpeth Hall activities. Enthusiasm and loyalty, keynotes of the school, are exemplified in each student's participation in her club. Through co-operation and good management, the efforts of each individual are made a part of the clubs' work as an integral unit of Harpeth Hall.

Below:

ARISTON

The importance of the four clubs to the school is seen through their interest in every phase of the curriculum. A club's achievement of a high scholastic average is rewarded by the presentation of a scholarship cup. Athletic honors are vied for throughout the year with club points given for skill in volleyball, basketball, tennis, softball, and

The Student Council is the governing body of Harpeth Hall. Composed of students who lead in upholding the standards of the school and in establishing high ideals of character, the Council formulates the regulations and endeavors to guide the student body to a fuller appreciation of these standards.

Upper

PRESIDENTS' COUNCIL

The Presidents' Council is composed of the presidents of the major campus organizations—the social clubs, the student council, the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes, and the honor society. Its responsibility is to work with Mrs. Souby on matters concerning the student body as a whole.

OFFICERS

NANCY FREDERICK	President
SALLY JORDAN	Vice-President
MARILYN McDANIEL	Secretary-Treasurer
MISS KUYKENDALL	Sponsor

Penstaff is a club for girls interested in creative writing and criticism. Members, who may be from any class, are selected by a judging of manuscripts submitted in the annual contest. The meetings, held twice a month, offer entertainment, informative discussions, and constructive criticism. Penstaff fills a definite need at Harpeth Hall; it is active in its job of stimulating, guiding, and encouraging the student to develop her creative talent.

SALLY JORDAN	President
NANCY SAGER	Vice-President
BARRY BENNETT	Secretary
MARILYN McDANIEL	Treasurer
SALLY DUKE	Sergeant-at-Arms
MADELINE REYNOLDS	Chaplain
MRS. OTTARSON	Sponsor

The Honor Society at Harpeth Hall strives to uphold and represent the standards upon which the school is based. Honorary membership in the organization is awarded to those girls who have achieved scholastic merit and who also have strengthened the school by their citizenship or leadership. The Honor Society exemplifies an ideal to its members and presents a challenge to the whole school.

MISS MOUNTFORT .....	Sponsor

The Biology Club under the leadership of Sandy Travis and the sponsorship of Miss Penelope Mountfort completed a profitable year. The organization accomplishes much scholastically as well as socially and has included in its varied activities field trips to surrounding regions, and projects on the campus.

Upper:

FRENCH CLUB

OFFICERS

JILL JAKES	President
CORINE SCALES	Vice-President
KAY RUSSELL	Secretary-Treasurer
HARRIET ANDERSON	Sergeant-at-Arms
MADAME FOUNTAIN	Sponsor

Through frequent meetings conducted entirely in French, this club promotes interest in the language and customs of our European neighbors. Each girl has an opportunity to participate in French games and other planned activities. Throughout the past year, Madame Fountain, the energetic sponsor, was one of the most active and ardent members; her enthusiasm added greatly to the success of the club.

Lower:

SPANISH CLUB

OFFICERS

MONTY MACCUE	President
DIXIE GLOVER	Vice-President
SANDY TRAVIS	Secretary
PEGGY O'CALLAGHAN	Sergeant-at-Arms
MISS MIMS	Sponsor

The Spanish Club under the guidance of its sponsor, Miss Mims, has worked with enthusiasm to arouse more interest in the Spanish language and Latin American culture. Among its programs were talks on Mexico and Guatemala, Spanish solos, and tourist views of Mexico.

FUGITIVES FROM JUNIOR-SENIOR DAY

G R A D U A T I O N

The festivities for the graduating girls included a reception for them and for their parents, Junior-Senior step-singing, the presentation of Shakespeare's AS YOU LIKE IT in honor of the Lady of the Hall and her attendants, and the senior banquet. These entertainments were climaxed by the graduation exercises which were held on the fourth of June.

Editor's Note

The staff wishes to express its thanks to all who have made possible the publication of this annual.

We are very grateful to Mr. L. L. Tucker of the Tucker Studio for the photography and gift of the portraits.

Our deep appreciation goes to the Benson Printing Company and to the Capitol Engraving Company for their generous contributions.

The staff is indebted to Miss Billie Kuykendall for her co-operation and untiring help through many long hours.

And especially, we thank Norman Shaw of the Benson Printing Company for his patience and great assistance while working with an inexperienced staff.
